

Story Talks with our Early Childhood Teachers

Join us on Zoom to meet some of St. Helen School's early childhood educators! Your child will enjoy a story and chat before bedtime.

We welcome parents to ask questions about our program, our community and how we are staying safe through COVID.

Principal Vance will be on to answer questions as well. We will share what a day in the life of our little St. Helen Knights looks like including pictures of our socially distanced classrooms.

Current and prospective families welcome at all story talks.
